KARN PIANO--The Favorite.

SHAMROCK, THISTLE AND ROSE.

"Where is the Scotchman that likes not the thistle,
Where is the Englishman that loves not the rose?
And where is the true-hearted son of old Erin,
That loves not the land where the Shamrock grows?"

Written by GEORGE ANTHONY.

Composed by PATRICK FEENEY.

Individuality Particularly
Counts in a Piano.

THE KARN

Possesses characteristics peculiarly its own and wherever it has been properly presented to the public it has won a position second to none. The Karn Piano is not only as good as we can make it, but as good as can be made. Our customers are our best friends. Write or call for prices, terms, etc.

KARN PIANOS

EMBODY THE FOLLOWING
ESSENTIAL CHARACTERISTICS

Unquestioned Durability.

Exceptional Staying-in-Tune Qualities.

Pleasing to the Critical Eye.

Satisfying to the Musical Ear.

An instrument replete with all the intricacies of detail necessary in the production of an art piano. Our pianos and organs are sold at reasonable prices and on easy terms.

THE KARN PIANO

ENTIRELY NEW DESIGN.

The Pianauto

The Pianauto is the greatest of all "piano-players." It will play on any piano any piece of music ever written. It can be played by anyone without musical knowledge, and its operation is so simple and light that a child can play it with ease. In the total absence of fatigue involved, it differs immensely from all other piano-players, and it is also vastly superior in capacity for "expression."
